

[REDACTED]

101 rue de Tilleuls

Montmartre,

Paris.

26 rue de la Paix
Bordeaux.

21 mars 1793

Bridget,

Thank you for your letter. I agree with your views. The revolution is a great thing for France and we have waited a long time to no longer be ruled by an absolute monarch. Like you, I feel we must defend our country from invasion from the Austrians and Prussians and even Louis Capet's wife is Austrian, why should we trust her? It was a great day when Louis Capet was executed, I hope Marie Antoinette is soon to be seeing the guillotine herself. On Monday, all the family were around ^{to} celebrate over dinner there was of us! My mother, Aunt Christelle, Uncle Christophe, my brothers Pierre and Claude and my sister, Sonia.

Écrite - moi
bientôt,
Frédéric