

A CONFERENCE SPONSORED BY THE CENTRE FOR METROPOLITAN HISTORY
WITH SUPPORT FROM THE LEVERHULME TRUST

Metropolitan Catastrophes

Scenarios, Experiences and Commemorations in the Era of Total War

Monday 12 July – Tuesday 13 July 2004

Institute of Historical Research

Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU

Total war blurred the boundaries between home and front and transformed cities into battlefields. This conference will explore the cultural imprint of military conflict on metropolises worldwide over a long time-span and provide a forum for the interchange of ideas on the comparative history of metropolises and wars.

Keynote speakers:

- ★ Jay Winter (Yale)
- ★ Patrice Higonnet (Harvard)
- ★ Antony Beevor (London)
- ★ Lisa Yoneyama (California, San Diego)

Programme and booking details available from:

Olwen Myhill
CMH, IHR, Senate House,
Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU
Tel: 020 7862 8790

Email: Olwen.Myhill@sas.ac.uk

or visit: www.history.ac.uk/cmh/war.html

