My Lord Marquess,

I have read with interest your despatch No.25 of the 9th January last enclosing Your Lordship's valuable report on the debate in Congress on the Neutrality Bill in October last. I should be grateful if you would convey to your staff an expression of my appreciation of the careful and arduous work that this report must have involved.

This draft is purely for record & do not imagine the reason in this. With you is. But as a matter of conscience I will mention what is going on about the numbers before, so I have drafted this. I don't think you have more than the covering dispatch.
