British Consul at New York, pending the receipt of his commission and the issue of his exequatur.

The biographical information concerning Mr. Yapp, furnished the Department through your courtesy, has been noted. In this connection reference is made to the circular note of March 30, 1939 in which there was set forth in detail the information desired concerning foreign consular officers in the United States and, as this is incomplete concerning Mr. Yapp, it is requested that full biographical information be furnished and a form is enclosed for this purpose.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

For the Acting Secretary of State:

Enclosure:

Biographical form.
