exact and detailed technical report complete with maps and other data will no doubt be supplied from New Zealand at a later date should you so desire.

In conclusion may I thank you personally for the very great assistance that has been given to the expedition throughout its sojourn in the Pacific not only by yourself but by the Secretary to the High Commission, the Colonial Secretary and the members of the staffs coming under those two gentlemen. I would like to add that the service of the personnel loaned to the expedition from the Fijian Administration was satisfactory.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your Excellency's most obedient servant,
