Dear Mallet:

I am writing this note to inquire whether you have received any reply as yet with regard to our suggestions in the proposed exchange of notes concerning the joint occupation of Canton and Enderbury Islands. Believing that we are now in very close agreement on both the language of the notes and that the text of the new license meets your Government's preoccupations, Judge Moore and I are hopeful that we may come to a final understanding as soon as possible.

As ever sincerely yours,

Reuben Moore
