IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 4, 1940

Mr. Reynolds introduced the following joint resolution; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

JOINT RESOLUTION

For the acquisition of British islands in the Caribbean and British Honduras.

1. Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
2. That the President is hereby requested to enter into negotiations in such manner as he may deem appropriate, with
3. the Government of Great Britain for the acquisition by the
4. United States of the islands of the Bermudas; the Bahamas—
5. Jamaica, with the Turks, Caicos, and Cayman Islands; the
6. Bahamas—
7. Trinidad and Tobago; Barbados; the Leeward Islands—
8. Antigua, Saint Kitts, Nevis, Dominica, Montserrat, and
9. Virgin Islands; the Windward Islands—Grenada, The
10. Grenadines, Saint Lucia, Saint Vincent; together with
11. British Honduras, in part payment for the indebtedness of
12. such Government to the United States.
S. J. RES. 221

JOINT RESOLUTION

For the acquisition of British islands in the Caribbean and British Honduras.

By Mr. REYNOLDS

MARCH 4, 1940

Read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations