

BRITISH EMBASSY,

WASHINGTON, D. C.,

May 2nd, 1941

No. 270

-/32

Sir,

I have the honour to enclose herein an aide-mémoire constituting the reply of His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom to the communication from the French Government which you were so good as to forward to me under cover of your note of April 5th.

I should be grateful if this aide-mémoire could be communicated to the French Embassy at Washington.

I have the honour to be,
with the highest consideration,

Sir,

Your most obedient,
humble servant,

(SGD) HALIFAX

The Honourable

Cordell Hull,

Secretary of State of the United States,

Washington, D. C.
