My dear Sir Ronald:

In accordance with our conversation of yesterday evening I am enclosing herewith copies of the two aide-mémoires which the President gave the Japanese Ambassador last Sunday.

May I repeat what I said last night and that is that I request that these papers be regarded as particularly secret and that the contents be not circulated by your Government to its diplomatic missions abroad, including the British Embassy at Tokyo.

Believe me

Yours very sincerely,

Enclosures

Sir Ronald Campbell,

British Chargé d'Affaires ad interim.
