

SIR RONALD CAMPBELL

I asked Mr. Welles this evening what he thought about the prospects of their talks with Japan.

He was not very communicative, and did not add much to what I had previously got from Mr. Hull.

He ~~did, however, say~~ ^{said} that he thought the position was dependent upon the progress of fighting in Europe, and that the latest news from Russia would have an unwholesome effect upon the Japanese mind.

A.

9th October, 1941

NOTHING TO BE WRITTEN IN THIS MARGIN.

see RE